Municipal Hospital

There was a good turnout at the meeting held on Tuesday night to hear a talk on Hospitals by Mr. Whiston, Supervisor of Municipal Hospitals for the province. Mr. Whiston gave a great deal of valuable information which will help a lot in pushing over the proposed Hospital for Lacombe and District. He told of the great success of the Municipal Hospitals already in operation, and the great saving effected for the sick, in fact, according to Mr. Whiston, the municipal hospitals have saved to the members nearly two and a half million dollars since they were organized. The average cost to the various districts now operating in Alberta is now $3.20 per quarter section, and the highest tax that has ever been assessed was $4.80. The charge per patient is held down to $1 per day in Municipal Hospitals, as against $4.00 per day in other hospitals, and the $1 a day charge includes everything except the doctor's charges. He recommended at 25 room unit be built here, and estimated the cost at $40,000. The hospitals were built to government standard, and could be enlarged at a minimum cost. He thought that with a little work by the people in the district the scheme should be put over without any trouble, as the advantages were so great that when once they were explained the ratepayers were anxious to have the hospital instituted.

As soon as possible work of organization will be taken up by our officials. At the close of the meeting, Mayor Jackson moved a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker of the evening.

CHAPEL NEWS

On 6th of January, a party of eleven invited friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Batten in honor of the 78th birthday of Mrs. Batten's father, Mr. George Lucas, of Leight Farm, Pillaton, England. Although the Lucas family are now somewhat scattered over the globe, it has always been the custom of each member to hold birthday parties in honor of Mr. Lucas, wherever they may be. A very enjoyable, sociable evening concluded with a supper served by Mrs. Batten.

On the 8th, Rev. Geo. Fielder endeavored to hold an afternoon service at Chapel School with the object of meeting the faithful of that denomination in this district, but was prevented from doing so when his car skidded into a ditch. After two hours maneuvering he managed to get back to Rimby in time for evening service there.

On the 13th, Mrs. R. Weise and Mrs. R. Shuefeldt were joint hostesses in a social evening at the school house. Practically the whole community were in attendance, also a few guests from outside points. The evening commenced with court whist, which proved a very enjoyable change from the regular progressive whist usually played at Chapel. That the new style of playing held no terrors for them was ably demonstrated by Mrs. A. Kinchloe and Mr. Geo. Cummings who captured the first prize for lady and gentleman, respectively, with very creditable scores. Mr. Jim Pringles qualified for the gentleman's trophy, and Mr. "Bob" Hardy, took the trophy on behalf of the ladies.

Dancing was then the order of the evening, music being supplied by Misses Craig and Bolton, and Mr. and Mrs. Dentman. Mr. John Ingraham and Mr. F. L. Batten each gave a step dance. The crowd insisted that the hostesses do the same. They obliged with a Schottische at the conclusion of which they were soundly applauded for their performance. The party broke up just before daylight.

Saturday 14th saw the annual meeting of Chapel School ratepayers. The financial and inspectors reports were read and passed. The subject of the paying of exchange on cheques paid in for taxes was brought up for discussion but was dropped. Mr. J. A. Adamson resigned from the board and Mr. R. Stoner's term had expired.

There were 60 boys from all over the province, from as far north as Peace River, to the southern boundary line assembled in the Council Rooms of the City Hall. The constructive party headed by Bob Bond, had quite a majority over the Co-operative party led by Russell Bercht.

The Clerk Mr. Don Baldwin, read the proclamation which summoned the House to its session. The Clerk then announced the membership of this House, following which Mr. Osborne, Mayor of Calgary, who kindly acted as Lieut. Governor, entered the House. Nominations for speaker were taken Mr. Bill Swift being elected. His Honor the Lieut. Governor was escorted in again by the Sergeant at-Arms, and he then read the speech from the throne.

Friday evening His Honor the Acting Lieut. Governor, prorogued Parliament. Friday afternoon the rules of the House were suspended, while the election of officers for the coming year was held. Thursday's evening session was broadcasted through the courtesy of Station C.K.L.C.

During the whole session, 8 Acts and 26 Resolutions were passed. Party system was abolished. It was determined to put on a joint finance campaign, between the date February 4th to 11th.

Mrs. J. McLaughlin and baby Marjorie and Mrs. G. Jackson were passengers on the train to Vancouver last week which was struck by a landslide in the mountains and in the jar all three were severely bruised. They were on their way to visit relatives in several coast cities.

It may be surprising to our citizens to learn that more than thirteen trains per day were passed over the Alix diamond by the tower men in the past twelve months, the total in exact figures being four thousand, eight hundred and forty six.

Everything went off satisfactorily at the annual school meeting on Wednesday afternoon. The report for the year showed a credit balance in the bank and the complaints submitted were practically nil. The election of trustees as follows:

Mr. Jennings has purchased the building next door to Mr. Norris's office on Main street which he will make his temporary quarters until spring when it will be replaced by a new garage. He has installed a new gasoline pump and is prepared for business. Dad Sheppard who occupied the premises as a harness shop, has moved his business across the street.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Knox church, Calgary, on Monday, January 2, at 8 p.m., when Dorothy Irene, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Darlow, of Alix, became the bride of Harold A. Kilbourn of that city. The ceremony was performed Rev. Geo. Dickson in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a charming frock of cornflower blue netting and black gem satin, with picture hat to harmonize and was attended by her sister, Edwina May. Mr. Lyman Ratcliff supported the groom.

THE MID DAY OF LIFE

In a good deal of the literature of the world, life is often portrayed under the symbol of the day. From the early dawn to the dewy evening there are hours which portray youth, young manhood, middle life and old age. In philosophizing on these hours and ages, youth and old age come in for considerable comment, with counsel given to the young and comfort to the old, but seldom is any word spoken or written centering on those in the noon day of life.

The general feeling is that little needs to be said to those of middle life. It is surmised that people who have reached this stage have entered a serene and quiet haven, or they have passed all uncharted rocks and are travelling in tranquil waters in perfect safety. This is far from fact, however. We know that each age has its perils and peculiar temptations, and there are no more insidious and deadly, more secret and subtle, than those of middle life; the hour when one turns from the innocent illusions to face the stern realities of life, and when the sun beats down upon the scorched plain of human experience.

There is no fooling with life in middle age. Its problems are hard; its loads heavy and its experiences severe. It is a time of physical, mental and spiritual re-adjustments. It is a period when ignorance and recklessness ought to give place to refinement and enrichment of life that should give one a new outlook on life, a fresh enthusiasm and a reinforced power. It is also a time when one must face peculiar perils.

These years are always fraught with the peril of materialism. The glamor and romance of life are largely departed. The poetic and imaginative side of one's nature are being relegated to the background as one concentrates on the sterner duties of business or professional life. Such concentration is apt to put one's life into a rut, in which business becomes all absorbing, causing the humanities of life to be forgotten, and leaving little or no enthusiasm to help mankind. When the character of a man becomes crowded with materialism he has reached the point of moral peril; the peril one writer had in mind when he said of a man, "born a man, and died a grocer."

The very danger leads to another peril that faces middle life, and is the peril of a declining faith. Faith comes easy in youth. Young people look out upon life with trustful eyes and believing hearts. It is not so in the noonday of life. The fact that people during these years are engrossed in business brings them into close contact with people who are not honorable. Their trust has been so often repaid by treachery, that they become cynical, skeptical and unbelieving. They develop a critical attitude toward the world, and often lose faith in religion because they have occasionally been deceived by those who make loud professions. At such a time one needs to keep his soul sensitive toward God, and should ever cultivate the fellowship of Christ, who helps a man "to test the things that differ, and to choose the things that are excellent."

Another menace that faces middle life is looseness of morals. If one is not careful a certain coarseness of nature becomes conspicuous during these years. In writing of this age, Carlyle says one feels the fiery spirit upon him. "Life," he said, "is a kind of life-in-death, or rather, one might say, a not being born. One sits in the belly of some Trojan horse, weather screened, but pining, inactive. Let us trust it in the name of God. Let us take such an existence as God will give us." This desire to take moral plunges is evident, and so many have done this to their sorrow. It is astonishing the number of people who in middle life have come to moral grief, by falling into some moral delinquency. The Bible has given us many glaring examples of those who started out well, but in whom all high ideals faded, and who, amid the heat of the noonday sun, fell smitten and condemned.

It is in middle life, as a rule, when a person faces his first great sorrow or bereavement, which often affects the rest of his life. In some cases it is the death of beloved parents; in others perhaps a loved one from the home. When Emerson's son died, he felt the whole world had changed, and in writing to Carlyle said: "You can never sympathize with me. You can never know how much a young child can take away; a few weeks ago, I counted myself a very rich man, and now the poorest of all." This is often one of the perils of life, which calls for faith in God if the soul is ever to survive the shock.

This period of life is also apt to leave with it a lost sense of the eternal. Dr. J. D. Jones, of Bourne-mouth emphasizes this fact. He believes that people become so absorbed and even obsessed with the material things of life that they give little time to the spiritual. The treasures of earth are so attractive that the treasures in heaven are forgotten. It is said of William E. Gladstone that he desired to give up public life because the duties were so engrossing he had no time for meditation, prayer or preparation for eternity. It was twenty years later, however, before Britain thought of releasing their great leader. It is only fair to say he took time for the culture of the soul, and for meditation on the deeper things of life. This attitude is essential for all if they are ever to effectively face the perils of the noonday of life.

THOUSANDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF LATE CHARLES PINGLE

Medicine Hat, Jan. 14.—Thousands of citizens from all walks of life representing every shade of political opinion and every religious denomination and public organization, turned out to pay their last respects at the funeral of the late C. S. Pingle, M.L.A. and former Speaker of the Provincial House, yesterday afternoon. Stores and offices in the city were closed for an hour and a half and all civic activity was stopped. More than 80 autos carried the mourners to the cemetery and hundreds of people unable to secure accommodation nevertheless followed the remains of their friend as far as Division Ave. from whence the cars started.

Flanked by members of the Crusaders Procession, the casket was carried to the funeral coach by the following pall bearers: Judge C. R. Mitchell, Senator Buchanan, A. P. Burns, J. F. Fisher, D. W. Hays, J.

W. McLean, W. A. Burton and Dr. Harraves.

From the house the procession was led by officers representing every local military organization, followed in turn by 16 representatives from the various Masonic lodges and the Rotary Club, Knights of Pythias and Canadian Legion. On the way to St. Barnabas church it passed between two lines of the full membership of these organizations and when approaching the church, it opened out and allowed the casket to be carried through its ranks into the church.

MRS. SNYDER HOPED LIFE WOULD SERVE LESSON

Ossining, N.Y., Jan. 15.—Hope that her life would serve as a lesson to the world was expressed by Mrs. Ruth Snyder in conversation with her attorneys shortly before her execution, while Henry Judd Gray told his attorney he realized the enormity of his crime and agreed that justice must be served.

"I have an hour and forty minutes to live," Mrs. Snyder told Attorney Leonard. "I am very sorry. I have sinned and I am paying dearly for it. I only hope that my life will serve as a lesson to the world."

Asked how she felt toward Gray, she replied, "Well, we sinned together; and I guess we will go together, God knows where. If I had my life to live over I would want to be what I want my child to be—a good girl."

Gray said the only regret he felt in dying for his crime was the suffering he was bringing on his family and relatives.

Mr. James Gaurley having resigned as local manager of the International Harvester Co., and McCormick-Deering Agency at Lacombe, the business has been taken over by Mr. M. Parcells, an experienced machinery man, who is now in charge at the old stand.

LACOMBE LOSES TO RED DEER—4-3

In what was without doubt the fastest game played this season, Red Deer won by a score of 4-3. Right from the opening gong the game was one of thrills and anticipation. Excellent team work and nifty stick-handling was in evidence throughout, and dashing individual plays were performed on both teams.

The game started at 20 minutes to 9 and the play was from end to end and scoreless until about fifteen minutes of the first period had been played, when Pop Steele scored for the local team. In this period, Tom Day was undoubtedly the favorite, and he got through the Red Deer defence repeatedly for shots on the Red Deer goal, but was out of luck, and simply could not get on past. Frank Burke and Pop Steele on defence stopped all comers, and Herbie Watt in goal at times had his hands full keeping the Red Deer "sharpshooters" at bay. The first period ended with Lacombe holding 1 goal to their credit, while Red Deer did not score.

The second period was fast and furious, and Red Deer was making a determined effort to score, and at times it looked like a sure goal for them, but Lacombe's defence was equal to all they had for several minutes, but at last Red Deer got one past and evened up the score. In this period, Earl Calkins scored for Lacombe on a pass for Louie. This goal for Lacombe was soon depicted by Red Deer, and the score was again tied. In this period Earl Calkins was the pick of the Lacombe team, and his stickhandling and headwork won for him storms of applause from the large crowd who attended. Pete Danner, also was at his best in this period, and that is saying a lot, as Pete is always good. In this period some nice combination was played by Lacombe, and when Woods, Day and Calkins would start down they would generally get through, but their efforts availed them nothing.

The third period, starting out a tie of 2-2, was the fastest in the game. Talk about speed and hard luck, Lacombe had plenty of it. On several occasions they got clean through and had the goal keeper out, but always something would happen to prevent them scoring. The crowd yelled themselves hoarse one minute, and the next minute were silent, and the next were graining, boy! this was a period long to be remembered by the fans present at the game. Lacombe got one goal and the honor of this last one, goes to Pop Steele, who in this period was certainly playing air-tight hockey. His rushes were a pleasure to watch, and his part in combination plays were effective. Red Deer again tied the score about the middle of the period, and the game again waxed furious. Both teams were on their toes, and hard checking and equally hard shooting was the order of the remaining eight or ten minutes. Lacombe would get the puck and get right through, but were unable to score; then Red Deer would get past the defence only to be stopped by Herbie. About three minutes from the end of the last period, Red Deer scored, and although the game was practically finished, Lacombe put forth their utmost efforts and right till the gong it was anybody's game. "It was some game", was the opinion expressed by everyone as they left the arena, and although the local team was beaten, they had the best of the play all through, and kept the Red Deer goalie busy with hundreds of head-on shots. The boys have no alibis, but say they can and will beat Red Deer next time.

John McDonald handled the bell, and all his decisions were fair and impartial.

The game was clean, and there were but four penalties, and minor ones at that.

George Sheats, manager of the Lacombe team deserves a whole lot of credit for the shape the team is in. They were never in better condition. Many complaints were heard on leaving the rink, as there was no outside light burning, and people were walking into cars, and into snow banks, and some were seen to fall gracefully on the slippery snow. It would be much better if the outside light were left on until the spectators found their way to the street.

Several auto loads of people from Bentley were in attendance at the game, and were highly pleased with the exhibition.

After the game, the ladies of the Lacombe Curling Club had a lunch ready for the boys of both teams, and members of the parties, which was greatly appreciated, and both the Red Deer club and Lacombe club were loud in their praise of the Lady Curlers.

LACOMBE LOSES TO CARSTAIRS

In a fast game between Lacombe and Carstairs, in the local arena on Saturday night, Lacombe lost by a score of 5-2. Carstairs had a nice, smooth working team and played a good, clean game. In the first three minutes of play, Tom Day, one of our fastest players got severely injured, and could not play for the remainder of the game. This weakened the line up considerably. And our regular goal keeper, Herbie Watt was not on the ice, which necessitated putting Earl Calkins in the goal and although Earl turned in a wonderful game, his absence from the forward lineup was greatly felt. Woods was also absent, and it was a greatly weakened team that played. At that, the local boys played a great game, and the score is no indication of the play. Lacombe played a great game and through hard luck missed many opportunities to score.

Burke and Van scored the goals for the local team, while Hall, Kelly and Bouscek secured the counters for Carstairs.

The game was clean and there were few penalties. John McDonald, who officiated as referee kept the teams in control and his decisions were fair and impartial.

WHAT REALLY PREVENTS DISARMAMENT?

The world was started last week when the Soviet government, at a meeting of the preparatory commission on disarmament in Geneva, made a revolutionary suggestion that the world should disarm. The suggestion that arms should be abandoned was so original to the commission that the world has been adjourned for a month or two to permit the digestion of the novel theory. There is no possible doubt that the only way that disarmament can be brought about is for the world to disarm. If this is unthinkable, then there is not much use wasting time and money on further conferences to discuss something in which the parties to the discussion do not believe. There are arguments against disarmament. In the first place the nations of Europe do not feel themselves secure against their villainous neighbors unless they are prepared for violent and murderous conflict with those neighbors. This argument has been shown to be so unsound that it might possibly be abandoned if there were no other obstacles in the way of disarmament. There is, of course, another reason, and probably it is the fundamental reason. So far it has remained in the background, but it might as well come forth into the daylight. Some powers have foreign possessions which they hold through the potentialities of their armed strength. France, the United States, Italy and to a lesser extent, Spain, Holland and Belgium, find themselves in that position. England, of course with her vast foreign complications, and the peculiar and intricate nature of her imperial connections and commitments, is in the most difficult position of all. Practically every British newspaper, outside the radical organs, sneered at the Soviet proposal of disarmament, professing to believe that the Soviet proposal was the outcome of acute Soviet insincerity; that it was aimed at British interests, and that it was too absurd for consideration. The reason why Great Britain cannot contemplate the Soviet proposal without heat is that it is obvious that the result of the abolition of the British Army and Navy would mean the abandonment of British control over many foreign possessions. Perhaps the time has come when Great Britain could look more closely into the whole matter. All that England gets at present from the foreign countries under her domination is profitable trade. If there were some prospect of Great Britain still retaining the trade in spite of the fact that she had relinquished political control, then the Russian idea of disarmament would not bear such a sinister aspect. If the relationship of Great Britain with her foreign interests and foreign possessions is what stands in the way of practical disarmament on a world scale, the idea of amending those relationships is well worth considering. If one should suggest, for instance, that Great Britain should withdraw her suzerainty over India, the suggestion would be probably accused of lack of patriotism or even of treason, but if it could be demonstrated that, by permitting India her complete independence, a tremendous advance towards world peace could be made, it would be difficult to argue that those advocating the proposal were not much more patriotic than those who have never been able to disassociate armed and arrogant strength from intense loyalty.

Recreating Old France at Quebec

In one of the most colorful and striking functions ever put on in this continent, it was reserved for the old city of Quebec to rediscover herself in the historic ball recently given in the two halls of the Legislative Assembly in the Ancient Capital. Although four hundred years of costumes and personalities were covered by the ball, it was the eighteenth century that was most prominently featured and it was mainly French historical characters who were shown. Louis XIV., "le Roi Soleil," was impersonated by the Hon. N. Perdeau, Lieutenant-Governor of the province; Lord and Lady Willingdon went back a little further and represented Charles I. of England and his Queen, Henrietta Maria. Premier Taschereau came out as d'Aguesseau, Chancellor and Comptroller under Louis XIV., and Mrs. Taschereau went as Marie Antoinette, ill-fated Queen of France. Miss Yvette McKenna, the debutante granddaughter of Hon. N. Perdeau, for whom the ball was given, appeared as Madame Louise de France, daughter of Louis XV. In all some 1,100 guests came to the ball and, since every one had to state beforehand in what character he or she would appear, there was no duplication, and the result was quite the most brilliant function ever shown in Quebec or probably any other city in America. Guests came from all parts of Canada and the Eastern United States, and the Chateau Frontenac was at capacity for some days beforehand to accommodate them.

Here and There

Edmonton.—Northern Alberta's biggest farm land deal this year was completed the other day when the well-known Trent Farm was sold to a colony of Almonites for more than $126,000. The new owners, eight families, will take possession on New Year's Day. The farm, which is in the Tofield district, has 2,641 acres.

Passengers on the "Empress of Australia" now touring the world had a memorable experience when they witnessed brilliant military manoeuvres near the Grand Pyramid initiated by King Fuad of Egypt in honor of the visit of King Amanullah of Afghanistan. Some of the passengers were subsequently received at King Fuad's court.

Toronto.—An optimistic note with regard to the market for Canadian bacon was struck by A. J. Mills, representative of the British Ministry of Food in conference with packers here. He expressed the conviction that Canadian farmers would be very poorly advised to slacken in hog production at the present time, stating that an improvement in the British market was in sight with many of the countries which had been flooding Britain with bacon during the past year being practically out of the business.

With around a thousand guests seated in the Ball Room, the Main Dining Room and the Jacques Cartier Room of the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, that famous hotel presented a remarkable scene on the occasion of the New Year's Eve festivities. Among the guests were the Governor of New Jersey and officials of the state, while important parties came up from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago and other cities of the United States.

A handsome New Year's gift to the people of Canada is indicated in the announcement of reduction of rates charged by Express Companies of the Dominion for shipment of packages up to 15 lbs. in weight and not over 3 1/2 feet in length, width or depth, which has been issued and filed with the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada by C. N. Ham, Chairman, Express Traffic Association. The reduction went into effect January 1 and it includes a continuation of the arrangement under which the Express Companies give protection against loss and damage up to $50 without extra charge on packages carried.

Toronto.—The Exhibition at Toronto led all the fairs on the continent last summer with an attendance of 1,750,000, according to a report by E. L. Richardson, of Calgary, President of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions. He states that fairs each year are becoming more popular and more successful, financially. More than 39,400,000 persons attended the 2,368 fairs in the United States and Canada this year, and attendance has, in fact, increased each year since 1910 by about 2,000,000. Investments in buildings and grounds is put at $250,000,000 and prizes each year amount to $8,400,000.

Would You Like To Get Away From Ashes, Smoke, Soot and Dirt This Winter?

IF SO, BURN...
PETROLEUM COKE
It goes further than the best soft coal and, therefore, cuts the cost of heating your home from 35 p.c. to 50 p.c.
It is crude oil with the gasoline removed.
It contains absolutely no ash or other waste.
It does not black in your bin like coal.
It is clean—no smoke; no soot; no dirt.
It is easy to fire and easy to learn how to fire.
It is burned instead of coal or wood in any stove or furnace.
It is large, lumpy and bright.
It saves you money with less work, worry and attention in firing.
Do not confuse Petroleum Coke with coal coke which contains ash.
Resolve to get away from the daily ash-pan this winter. Burn something that will turn coal-drawery into a pleasant experience.

DEATH OF MRS. KINLEY

Mrs. James Kinley, one of the most highly respected women in this district, died at her home on Thursday last, after a short illness. She was in her seventy-second year, and had resided here for many years. Her death was quite unexpected, and was a shock to her many friends and neighbors. The funeral was held on Saturday and was attended by a large number of friends of the bereaved husband and family.

Mr. James Kinley and family wish to take this opportunity to thank their friends for their many acts of kindness during their recent bereavement.

RIMBEY

The bitterly cold weather which predominated over the holiday season did not stop the younger Rimbeys from taking in the various festivities held in the neighborhood school houses and community halls. In Rimbeys itself, an epidemic of mumps wrought havoc with Christmas plans. The Nazarene Sunday school by using several substitutes managed to weather through. With the Church of England, it was different, and arrangements were made so that a weary and worn home-bound Santa Clause made a stop over on January 6th, to give the Sunday School a deferred yet enjoyable Christmas party, and to distribute the prizes and medals.

During the cold spell the thermometer according to reports reached alarming new records. The lowest recorded to date being claimed by a farmer south of town, who says he tied a broom handle to the thermometer there, and the mercury ran down the broom handle. We have one other report from a very reliable source, on a doctor practicing in the Blindman Valley. The doctor had been very busy just before Christmas it seems. Came the Christmas dinner and the turkey, and to the doctor, at the head of the festive board fell the honor of carving the bird. In a moment of forgetfulness, to the astonishment of the family, the doctor picked up the carver, made an incision, removed the stuffing, and then proceeded to sew up the wound again.

On the 5th we took a trip out to Lockhart and took in the leap year dance put on by the Junior U.F.A. The girls were out to see that all comers had a good time, and with the assistance of the "Harmonizers" and a music makes real dancing, and although only four members of this orchestra were present, they could, and did hand out worth-while music. One may wonder just what these folk could do when their orchestra is complete, and according to rumor, Rimbeys will soon know, as they are expected to appear at full strength in Rimbeys in the very near future. Mr. Rex Dolman reports that a home bound party had the misfortune to have the runners of their cutter collapse in front of his house during the early hours of the morning. This couldn't possibly be the same sleigh load that we saw stage a runaway in the vicinity of the bridge south of town—or could it. The man in the moon sees a whole lot, but never says a word.

The latest recruit to the "order of the wearers of rubber-tired spectacles" is no less person than our friend George Parkes. A growth over one eye, we are very much afraid will mean an operation in the near future. Yet, really, George looks so very becoming with his new storm windows and this somewhat offsets the inconvenience of wearing them. His friends especially those around Lockhart will no doubt remember George in the role of Herr Von Schultz in the play put on by the Junior U.F.A. last year. Today George wears the snow white apron, and may be seen any day in Mowbray's Meat Market, selling, not hair dye this time, but anything from beef steak to salt herring.

We very much regret to have to report two deaths in this locality this year. Mrs. Jack Eaton, left for the Red Deer Hospital to undergo an operation, but died shortly after arrival there. The remains were taken back to Rimbeys and interred in the cemetery here. The Nazarene Church conducting the services. The other was Mrs. Eley, who resides north of town. Mrs. Eley took a stroke whilst milking a cow, and died very soon afterwards. The funeral service was held at the farmstead, Rev. Geo. J. Fielder, of the Church of England officiating. The remains were interred in the Rimbeys cemetery.

Mr. K. Wates, late of Rimbeys, now residing in Edmonton, was a visitor in Rimbeys last week. On Tuesday, the regular meeting of the Rimbeys Canadian Legion was held in the old Post Office building. The attendance was good. The regular routine of business was observed. Motion was made by Comrade Mack and seconded by Comrade Stackey that qualifications being equal, returned veterans should have preference in any position, the salary of which is paid from public funds, whether the position is now vacant or not. It was pointed out that many of the boys suffer not only physically but also financially through being absent; overzealous, and were morally entitled to every consideration in an endeavor to recompense this. The motion carried and will be brought before every branch of the Legion in the Dominion for discussion and comment. The case of a pensioner was also brought to the attention of this branch, and the secretary instructed to write for details.

All members are asked to turn their cards in to the secretary to be brought up-to-date.

The meeting closed with the national anthem. A new rural mail loop from Rimbeys now enables the Lockhart neighborhood to receive bi-weekly delivery.

C. J. College Notes

Miss Margaret Campbell is leaving today for Staveland, where she will cook for the threshers at the Wallace place.

The girls had another very interesting worship Monday evening. The theme of the program was "Beautiful Girlhood."

We were very pleased to see the smiling face of "Scottie" McPherson, an old student of C.J.C. at the college on Saturday evening.

Recently we have received word from Miss Amelia Goerlitz, that she will be with us this week to begin her school work. Old friends welcome her.

We are glad to have Gladys Mahley with us again. She arrived Saturday noon from Calgary, where she underwent an operation for adenoids. Alex Clark received a very bad cut on the forehead while playing hockey on Tuesday. He had to see Dr. Hynes, in Lacombe, who put two stitches in it.

Pastor Rusckey was with us the week end and assisted in our Sabbath service. The subject of his talk was "Get rid of your sins every day."

HERE'S SPEEDY RELIEF FOR

TENDER, ACHING, SWOLLEN FEET

MOONE'S EMERALD OIL MUST GIVE COMPLETE SATISFACTION Or Money Cheerfully Refunded

Your feet may be so swollen and inflamed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes may feel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?

Two or three application of Moone's Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.

And as for Soft Corns and Calluses a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with powders, footbath or other applications, if you have tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn.

It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing various swellings or swollen veins.

Every good druggist guarantees the very first bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles, or money back.

Some twenty students spent the afternoon of the fifteenth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Janke. The occasion was a birthday surprise party for Mr. Janke.

Mr. I. L. Buckwalter, who is canvassing in Edmonton, spent the week end with his family. Mr. Buckwalter reports good success and many interesting experiences.

Oscar Melchior, of Dundurn, Sask., on his return from the Resthaven Sanitarium, is spending a few days visiting the Osterkamp family, former neighbors at Dundurn.

The fireman and the chemist had the interesting task last Friday of re-filling the extinguishers. This important item of the fire equipment is now in readiness for immediate service.

To feed the group of people here for one day with the common necessities of life, takes one and one-third bushels of potatoes, twenty gallons of milk and seventy-five one-pound loaves of bread.

The first meeting of the Boys' Debating Society was called for seven o'clock Saturday night. Everyone who attended enjoyed himself. The boys are all looking forward to these weekly meetings.

A musical program was given in the Chapel on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. The first and second year music and vocal students gave the recital, which consisted of piano duets, piano solos and vocal numbers.

A very important topic was presented in Chapel Monday morning—"The Three Things Necessary for School Health." Mrs. Mayor discussed the first essential which was proper food; the other two essentials are: exercise and air. These will be taken up at another chapel period by Alberta Beardsley.

The hour of the concert to be given in the Rex Theatre Sunday night, January 22, has been changed from 8.30 to 8.45 p.m. In last week's issue of the paper it was stated the choir consisted of seventy-four voices. This should have read twenty-four voices.

Two commercial students were presented with medals on Monday morning in Chapel. Opal Rick received a bronze medal for a speed of forty-two words net a minute for fifteen minutes, from the Underwood Company, while Mrs. Ogden received a card case for thirty-one words net per minute, from the Remington Company.

We are sorry to have J. J. Reiswig, who has been for a number of years president of the Alberta Conference of S.D.A., leave us. He will take charge of a foreign language department of the General Conference. His headquarters will be at Walla Walla, Washington. We wish him success in his new line of endeavor.

In a letter received by Cecil Bowett, from Arthur Field, of Vancouver, he tells of an accident, which occurred at Kildale Arm, B.C., in which the gas tank on the "Clara Francis", the launch owned by the Owens Logging Company, blew up, killing Roscoe Owens and severely burning the face of his brother, Lloyd Owens. Roscoe Owens is a brother-in-law to Samuel Sickle, who is one of the students here in the College.

Pastor Newbold is leaving for Calgary sometime this week, in the interest of the Baptismal class there. His work, however, is to continue. He has assigned nearly thirty topics, one of which he has requested that every student write, according to the students choice of topic. In no wise are the essays to be less than three thousand words in length and no longer than ten thousand words.

The topics are ones that will require considerable research, and will demand the attention of every student concerned.

The Canadian Junior College Orchestra and Choir will present the following program in the Rex Theatre on Sunday evening beginning at 8.45 o'clock.

GIRLS DEFEAT PONOKA

The Lacombe Girl's Hockey Team motored to Ponoka on Saturday night last, where one of the most sensational games of the season was played. The fact that both teams took the ice for the first time this season did not appear to slacken up the play in the least. Lacombe had the heaviest team, and were in better condition, as the Ponoka team was entirely new and none of the Ponoka players had played together before.

The game opened fast and both teams were working hard, and much hard checking was noticed. The scoring was started by Miss Willis who taking a pass from Jennie Hembury, put a fast one through, which the Ponoka goal tender was unable to see. End to end plays were then the order, Ponoka forcing the play and at times it looked like certain goals for Ponoka. Miss Beth McDermott played brilliantly in the nets and stopped many hard shots. The first period ended 1 to 0 in Lacombe's favor.

The second period was much faster than the first, Lacombe playing a defence game. Again and again Ponoka rushed, only to be checked by our defence. In this period Miss Willis, again scored on a pass from Laura Gourlay. The second period ended with Lacombe 2, and Ponoka 0.

In the last period both teams allowed up considerably and few rushes were made by either team. Ponoka's forwards were forcing the play and at times played brilliantly, and were in the game to the last. Beth McDermott, stopped many hard ones in this period. After several minutes of strenuous play, Miss Willis again scored on a pass from Laura Gourlay, making the score 3-0 for Lacombe.

Eleanor Walters took a bad fall in this period and was off for the remainder of the game.

Although the score was somewhat one-sided, a lot of good playing was done by the Ponoka girls. This was their first appearance as a hockey team, and played a very creditable game. With a little more practice the Ponoka girls will put up a much better game, and when they come to Lacombe for a return game, the score may be somewhat different.

Miss Butchard and Miss Smith accompanied the girl's team.

For Ponoka the outstanding players were: Algar, Brady, Gordon and Reglin.

For Lacombe: Willis, Gourlay, Hembury and Calkins.

Lineups as follows:
Lacombe: Goal, Beth McDermott; Defence Sarah Oskins; Eleanor Walters; Forwards, Gene Willis, Jenny Hembury, Laura Gourlay; Lila Harrington, Helen Carrothers.

Ponoka: Goal, Bertha Prochaska; Defence: Ida Reglin, Marg. Gordon; Forwards: Winnie Algar, Gertrude Brady, Dorothy Algar, Alice Bures, Grace Ferguson, Barbara Prochaska.

Judge Crawford, of England, says that the clothing worn by girls today "is only indicative of the moral outlook and tendencies of the modern girl." Cheer up, Judge. The girls of today have as high a batting average for moral outlook as those that decked themselves out in the balloon sleeves and dust-trailing skirts of earlier generations.

The Ladies Guild of the United Church are holding a sale of baking and a silver tea in the Rest Room on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 21st, in aid of the Flower fund. We are offering big reductions in price on all furniture, beds and bedding for the rest of the week at Lacombe Furniture Store.

Alberta's Provincial Police force has been re-organized by the letting out of the assistant superintendent and some doubling up which it is estimated will "save" $15,000 a year. That sort of reorganization may please the government; it is doubtful if it will satisfy the public which is more concerned about the capture of criminals who too frequently go unpunished than about a $15,000 saving.

MARRIED

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday evening at the home of the Rev. Mr. Avison, when Doris Helen Gibbons, daughter of W. D. Gibbons of Blackfalds, Alta., was united in marriage to William James Duckworth, of Calgary, formerly of Stellarton, Nova Scotia. The bride was attended by Mrs. Ed. Graham, and the groom was supported by Mr. E. Graham. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Clark, Jr., Mrs. Clark serving a very dainty lunch. A number of intimate friends were present.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. A. Dession is recovering nicely from the effects of a serious accident of some days ago. While going down cellar, her heel caught on the top step, and she was thrown heavily to the cement floor, sustaining a severely lacerated forehead, several stitches being required to close the wound.

FULL PROGRAM OF ANNUAL U.F.W.A. CONVENTION AT CALGARY

Arrangements have been made for a more extensive broadcast of the U.F.A. convention than has been the case of previous years, it was stated at the headquarters of the organization in Calgary on Saturday. The Calgary Herald's broadcast will be utilized and it was hoped that J. D. Fraser, head of the grain inspection department at Winnipeg, who was addressing the convention on grading, would do so during one of the broadcast periods.

In addition to Mr. Fraser, R. M. Robertson, one of the members of the Board of Grain Commissioners, will also address the convention. Much interest is centred in these two addresses. The question of wheat grading it is said, will probably be one of the outstanding questions that will receive the attention of the delegates at this year's annual meet.

Hail insurance is also another matter which will loom somewhat largely at the convention. Hail losses last season were the heaviest ever known in Alberta. Arrangements have been made for A. H. Tovell, manager of the Hail Insurance Board of Alberta to address the convention.

ALBERTA'S FINE FARM OUTLOOK

Alberta's farm yield for the year 1927, on the authority of the minister of agriculture, was $338,161,458. The average showing per farm was $4,385. Twenty-one years ago the total value of Alberta farm products was less than $52,000,000. This surely is a showing that should paralyze any pessimism that may have existed in the minds of Albertans or others, concerning the possibilities of this province.

When the value of a single year's farm business works out an average of $4,385 income per farm for the whole province there can exist no need for apologies either as to the productivity of the land as a whole or the farming abilities of the men who occupy the land.

The fact is that the year just past presented such climatic conditions as might easily have wrecked the hopes of the people had it not been for the enterprise and ingenuity of the farmers, notwithstanding the natural fruitfulness of the land. They met unusual conditions with a brave front, studied them intelligently and turned them to their own advantage.

One unsatisfactory branch of agriculture was noted in the minister's talk to delegates to the Livestock Breeder's convention. In dairying we seem to have been moving in the wrong direction. Butter production has fallen off to an extent that may well be considered alarming. One reason for this may be the fact that too many Alberta farmers have not yet taken dairying seriously. They milk and separate when beef cattle prices are too low to be profitable; as soon as beef cattle prices advance they quit their little adventure, into dairying. Which is certainly not the way to build up a successful dairying reputation for the province.

Under correct conditions dairying pays. Only under correct conditions can it be hoped that Alberta will ever be able to count dairying among her stable agricultural enterprises. It should be an important matter to Alberta's farmer government to see to it that this industry, which is clearly one of the many natural industries of the province is placed upon a correct basis. Hon. George Hoadley seems sympathetic and interested. It should be an easy matter for him to persuade his legislative colleagues to back a progressive government dairy improvement programme.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN A.P.P. OFFICERS

Abolition of the office of Assistant Superintendent, the amalgamation of headquarters and "A" (Edmonton) division, and the creation of a Criminal Investigation Branch are announced in connection with a readjustment of the personnel of the staff of the Alberta Provincial Police Force. Under the new arrangement, Assistant Superintendent J. D. Nicholson, whose position is being abolished, has resigned and Inspector W. F. W. Hancock of the Peace River District takes command of "A" Division of Edmonton, replacing Inspector J. S. Piper, who will become head of the newly created Criminal Investigation Branch of the Force. The proposed changes it is estimated, will effect a considerable economy annually and increase the efficiency of the force.

Mrs. Fred Sissons left on Tuesday for a holiday trip to the coast.

Here and There

Evidence of reconstruction work in Yokohama is soon through the fact that a five-story steel and reinforced concrete hotel was officially opened recently. The building, known as the Hotel New Grand, is of fire-proof and earthquake-proof construction and is modelled after the style of the best Canadian hotels.

Toronto.—The Province of Ontario is at the close of the greatest gold producing year in its history, according to officials of the Department of Mines, who forecast an increase in gold production this year of $2,000,000 as compared with last year's output. In addition, the total mineral production is expected to be more than $91,000,000—a gain of $8,000,000 over 1926.

Halifax.—Boys' and Girls' Swine Clubs are now well established here. Calf Feeding Clubs are also on the increase and it is expected that in 1928 the latter will attain the same number in the province as the former. Egg marketing circles are also being organized and much good work is already reported. These should prove a valuable aid to the poultry industry.

Preparations for the Banff Winter Carnival, to be held February 4-11, are well under way. Canadian mushers are training and intend to make a strong effort to bring back to Canada the "Strongheart Trophy" which was carried to the United States by Warren Cordingley, of Ashton, Idaho. It is anticipated that there will be several teams from the United States competing again this year.

Saint John.—An epoch in the transportation of cargo between Canada and the United Kingdom was felt here recently when W. R. MacInnes, vice-president in charge of traffic of the Canadian Pacific Railway; W. A. Wainwright, assistant to the chairman, with other officials of the railway, inspected the C. P. fast cargo liner "Beaverburn," which recently docked here, completing her maiden voyage.

According to a report covering the activities of the past year of the Canada Colonization Association, a subsidiary of the Canadian Pacific Railway, 826 families, consisting of 3,443 persons, were settled on 162,982 acres of land by the association. The value of these transactions is in excess of $6,000,000. Nearly 300,000 acres of land are ready for settlement and prospects for the current year are very bright.

Vancouver.—In an address before the Board of Trade upon the services rendered by the union by the late Sir William Van Horne, founder of the city of Vancouver and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, C. A. Cotterell, general superintendent of the railway's British Columbia district, said: "The Canadian Pacific Railway is the largest taxpayer and the largest purchaser in the province; it spent last year $30,750,000 in stores and supplies, taxes, wages, etc."

CANADA SPENDS A MILLION A WEEK FOR BOOZE

"Canada is spending a million dollars a week on alcoholic beverages. The domestic production of whisky, gin, beer and other strong drink amounts to $40,000,000 per annum. We have imported during the last twelve months another $40,000,000 worth and exported to the United States and other countries $26,000,000 worth. This leaves $54,000,000 worth of liquor to quench the Canadian thirst, not counting the home brew and the moon shine, which are such strong competitors of the government shops.

"Canadian imports of alcoholic beverages increased at a rate exceeding a million dollars a month in 1927, as compared with 1926. In the month of November alone, we brought into the country $5,478,268 worth of brandy, gin, whisky and wines. In the last twelve months our imports exceeded $40,000,000 as against less than $28,000,000 during the preceding year. Every month of 1927 showed larger purchases of liquor from abroad, mostly from the United Kingdom."

ALBERTA HONEY PRODUCTION HEAVY

Alberta apiculturists have produced a total of approximately 300,000 lbs. of honey in 1927, as compared with some 215,000 pounds in 1926, according to figures recently compiled by the Department of Agriculture. The total value of the 1927 production is placed at $60,000 as compared with $36,550 for 1926. Some 200 bee-keepers, representing practically all sections of the province, have furnished reports covering 3,450 colonies of bees for the season of about 90 pounds of honey per colony. For the first time in its history Alberta is self-supporting in the matter of honey production.
